If I’m Silent

C#m A Bsus E
The flowers explode with your beauty / You clothe them with splendor and grace
C#m A Bsus E
in their own native tongue they say thank you / Each blossom proclaiming your grace
A Bsus E A
The earth cannot help but give glory / to the creator and maker each day
A Bsus C#m A Bsus E
and i say to myself as i lay my head down / have i used all my days to give praise

CHORUS:
E A Bsus C#m A Bsus
they say if I’m silent the rocks will cry out / be quiet or come sing along E A Bsus C#m A E
the God of the heavens has called me by name / and i won’t let a rock steal my song

C#m A Bsus E
sun and stars seem to find their own language / to thank you for granting them days
C#m A Bsus E
the mountains shout out hallelujah / In a majestic and marvelous way
A Bsus E A
May today be a day that I praise You / It’s the only thing that i can do
A Bsus C#m A Bsus E
let me throw up my hands and give all that I am / In a song of thanksgiving to you

CHORUS:

A Bsus C#m
Hallelujah,
A Bsus C#m
Hallelujah,
A Bsus C#m A
Hallelujah, Sing to You
